

THE DAILY CHRONICLE.

RULE & RICKS, Proprietors.
TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT 3, 1872.
THE LARGEST CIRCULATION
Of Any Daily Published in East Tennessee.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.
For President,
ULYSSES S. GRANT,
OF ILLINOIS.
For Vice President,
HENRY WILSON,
OF MASSACHUSETTS.

The Chicago Times is authorized to say that Governor Jacobs, just elected in West Virginia, favors the Louisville movement and will stump his State against Greeley.

The New York Times publishes a transcript from its subscription books, which show that its increase in subscription for the past three months is 15,280 increase in Daily and 70,200 increase in Weekly. A very good record and one which the Times richly deserves.

ANOTHER "INDEPENDENT."

The Union and American of the 31st ult., publishes a card from Col. A. S. Colyar, in which he announces himself an independent candidate for Governor, and promises soon to announce upon what grounds his canvass will be made. He wants to discuss with Gov. Brown the questions of free schools, immigration, encouraging manufacturing enterprises, the subject of convict labor in mines and quarries, and the equalization and uniformity of taxes. He proposes to show up Brown's record on these questions. Verily, the caudron boils.

CHANCELLOR KEY FLICKERS.

We have a private letter from Chattanooga, written Sunday night, to the effect that Chancellor D. M. Key has drawn off from the Congressional race. We do not know upon what grounds he bases this remarkable action, but suppose he thinks "a bird in hand is worth two in the bush." The muster roll of the late Confederate army printed at the head-head of a Democratic paper would about as faithfully present the roll of candidates for office in Tennessee as anything we can think of. It may be that Key found the people were sick of these Generals and Colonels, and therefore withdrew. Who will be the victim now in the Third District? Who stands next on the muster roll of the S. A.?

The East Tennessee Democratic press don't follow the lead of their central organ "the great national newspaper," worth a cent. The Cleveland Banner rebukes it manfully for its inconsistency, and even little Kirby of the Chattanooga Times gives the poor fallen thing a parting kick. Hear the ungrateful, hard hearted little wretch talk:

We do not think that the editor of the Press and Herald is prepared to admit, even to himself, that he is actively co-operating with his friends the CHRONICLE to defeat Gov. Brown and elect a Radical Legislature; both results to be obtained by the barrier of Radical votes for Johnson in exchange for "Conservative Union" votes for the Radical candidate. After his scathing denunciation of the Baxter-Nelson memorial, which was to prove the "political death warrant" of so many men, including one whose name appears at the head of the Press and Herald as a regularly nominated candidate for Congress, we do not suppose that his gifted editor would confess that he is now heart and soul engaged in promoting the welfare of his bitterest and most implacable enemies, any more than he would call this paragraph from his file upon his own "political death warrant."

The paragraph alluded to is a portion of the dole-bleaded editorial that appeared in the "big organ" on last Friday morning, wherein the editor deprecates the want of "harmony" in the Democratic ranks and his determination to continue his "resistance to Radicalism," the very policy, as the Times truthfully says, "for which the Banner, the Baxter-Nelson memorialists, and the Reunion-Reformers were so mercilessly excoriated by the Press and Herald."

VERMONT AND LOUISVILLE.

To-day is one of importance in the political calendar. On this day the people of Vermont answer to the preliminary roll call of the States. The election is important as it has been claimed for Horace Greeley, that he had peculiar strength in the New England States, and would make a fearful raid on the regular Republican vote. We shall know to-morrow how much foundation this claim has. The election is for Governor and other State officers. The Republican nominee is Hon. Julius Converse. His opponent the Democratic and Liberal Republican candidate is Hon. A. B. Gardner. The majority in Vermont ranges from seventeen to twenty thousand, and though the present canvass has not been an exciting one and the vote may not be a full one, the majority for Converse will probably show the average vote.

The second event of importance to-day is the convention of straight-out Democrats which meets at Louisville under the direction of Blanton Duncan, Chairman of the National Executive Committee. This convention will be respectfully attended and will represent a vote that is unquestionably growing stronger every day as the hopelessness of Greeley's election grows more apparent. If a strong ticket is put in nomination it seems entirely possible that it may poll a larger popular vote next November than the nominees of the Cincinnati and Baltimore convention. It is not likely nominations will be made to-day, but we shall probably be able to give to-morrow enough of the convention's proceedings to indicate its spirit and character.

CROSSING THE RUBICON.

The Union and American, though it has had Cheatham's name at its mast head, has not heretofore opposed Johnson. It is not known generally, perhaps, that the Ex-President has quite a large sum of money loaned or invested or in some way in use in the Union and American concern. Perhaps its editor was embarrassed by that relation between the candidate and the paper. Whether that has been now arranged or not we do not know, but that paper now is on the war path against the Ex-President. It pretends to have made his Gallatin speech the pretext. In that speech it says he "crossed the Rubicon." Up to last Friday it hoped to induce Andy to withdraw, but Colyar's announcement for Governor, which it seems to think a part of the Johnson movement, dispelled all such hopes. In its Sunday issue it concludes an editorial in which it "crosses the Rubicon," by these doleful warnings:

"With our views of duty to principles and to party as the advocate of principle, we shall stand by the Democratic organization, its rules, customs, and usages, and give to its nominee a cordial, hearty support. We may be beaten. Radicalism may triumph and again rule through our dissensions, but we shall still rally 'The Old Guard,' and contest every inch of ground in defence of the principles of Constitutional government and for the preservation of that party which has so long and nobly stood up against the assaults of Radical fanaticism. LET THE DEMOCRACY RALLY."

The New York Nation, one of the first papers to favor the Cincinnati movement, says: "There is no question that the Greeley movement is now flagging. This is 'acknowledged on all hands.' Some of the faithful who read only local Greeley organs in Tennessee think the 'ground swell' is still startling the country. Most sensible men now know that the Greeley movement is fast approaching a fizzle."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Want of Vitality.
If a deficiency of vital energy is not a disease in itself it is a condition which lays the system open to the attacks of all conceivable maladies. Night and day we are surrounded more or less by deleterious influences. No atmosphere is entirely pure, no water utterly free from injurious particles; while in many localities both are positively unwholesome. What defence has the weak, languid system, in which the vital principle is deficient or dormant, against any of the morbid influences which produce epidemic and other diseases? None whatever. There is no safety save in artificial reinforcement. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have, beyond all question, a vitalizing effect. If the nervous forces of the body have been recklessly expended in exhausting physical or mental labor, or dissipated in the indulgence of a "fast" life, this powerful vegetable tonic and corrective will restore them. If the defective vitality is a constitutional evil it can be remedied to a great extent by this wonderful invigorant. At a season of the year when the air is more or less impregnated with the seeds of periodic fevers, it is especially desirable that the digestion should be perfect, the habit of body regular, the liver active, the blood pure and the nerves firm. These conditions are the best protection against all disorders, and they are conditions which the Bitters are better adapted than any other medicinal agent to promote and secure. See to it, however, that no imitation or counterfeit is substituted for the genuine article, and let all who value health and have an antipathy to poison beware of the local bitters made from condemned drugs and vitally adulterated alcohol, which have sprung up like unwholesome fungi all over the country.

THE BATTLE HOUSE.

I HAVE LEASED THE HOTEL LATELY KNOWN as the Stacey House, and will henceforth conduct it in the most approved style.

The patronage of the public generally, and of my old friends particularly, who have stood by me so truly in the past, is respectfully solicited. I promise them a cordial reception and a comfortable home at the Battle House.
JOEL A. BATTLE.

It will be seen from the above that I have leased the Stacey House to General Battle. In retiring from the position which I have occupied for several years in this city, I desire to tender my thanks and kind wishes to old friends, and to earnestly extend a continuation of their patronage to my successor, as one who will make their stay with him comfortable in every respect.

Patent Paint.

BRADLEY'S PATENT ENAMEL PAINT.

These Paints are composed of the finest and best materials known to painters; the principal ingredients being Pure White Lead, Zinc and Linseed Oil, which are made to unite in a homogeneous mass, by the addition of other materials, which add greatly to the durability, elasticity, beauty and strength of the Paint. The whole are chemically combined, so that the pigments are held in permanent solution, thus forming a new compound which dries upon the surface and adheres firmly to it, forming a smooth, glossy, firm, elastic, beautiful and durable Paint. The Oil, which is the real life of the Paint, cannot leave it and be absorbed by the substance to which it is applied, as it does in paints mixed in the ordinary way, thus leaving the pigments dry and chalky, to wash and run off in a few months. This Paint is unaffected by changes of weather; is perfectly impervious to the action of water; is well adapted to all classes of work, and is in every way a better Paint for either inside or outside work, or best painting than any other Paint known to the trade, and will last, at least, three times as long as the best Lead or Oil, mixed in the ordinary way. These Paints are ready for use; are easily applied by any one; require no mixing, stirring, or additions of driers.

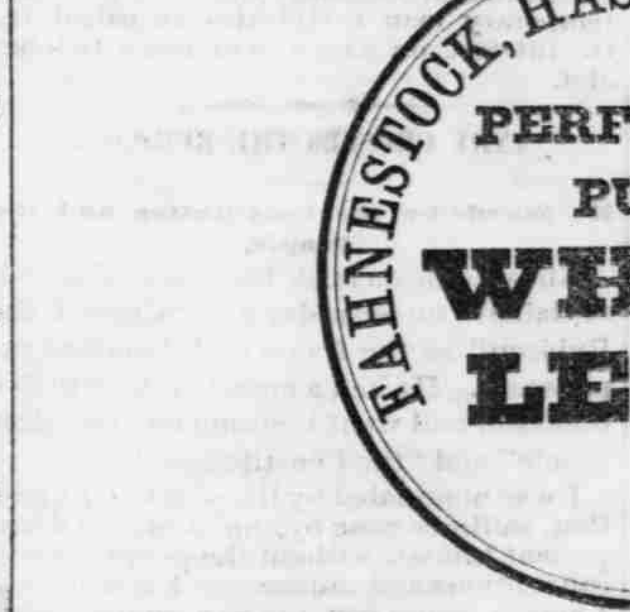

1 Gallon will cover 20 square yards, 2 coat.
Full satisfaction guaranteed to customers.
Sold by the gallon, keg and barrel. Orders attended to promptly. Specimens and price list furnished gratis.

Price List Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint,
